

Post-Test

Thank you for completing the “Child Protective Services: Guidance for Mandated Reporters Training.” This video is designed to provide guidance to those who are required by state law to report any form of child abuse or neglect.

The following questions relate to the video you have just watched. Please print out this form, answer the questions and forward it to the Office of Human Resources, OM 221. If you would prefer to scan and send it via email, you are welcome to do so. The email address is hro@stmartin.edu.

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Who are mandatory reporters?
 - a. All Washington residences.
 - b. All parents and siblings of younger children.
 - c. Professionals who have frequent contact with children in the course of their work.
 - d. All those who work with the public.

2. What is the purpose of the child abuse reporting law?
 - a. To provide protection to children by encouraging reporting of suspected abuse.
 - b. To punish healthcare providers who fail to report child abuse.
 - c. To create oversight of healthcare professionals and law enforcement offices.
 - d. To encourage parents to stop hitting children.

3. In Washington State, a mandatory reporter who fails to make a report of child abuse:
 - a. Is protected by HIPPA laws.
 - b. Can be charged with a felony if there is evidence of repeated failure to report such abuse.
 - c. Cannot be found guilty of civil or criminal sanctions for failing to report child abuse
 - d. Is guilty of a gross misdemeanor with sanctions of imprisonment and/or fines.

4. Who should you report an incident of child abuse and/or neglect to?
 - a. The child's parent or guardian.
 - b. The child's grandparents or neighbors.
 - c. Don't report and don't get involved.
 - d. DSHS-Child Protective Services and law enforcement.

5. According to Washington Law a child is:
 - a. Any person under the age of 18.
 - b. Any person 5 years to 18 years of age.
 - c. Any person up to the age of 21.
 - d. Any person from birth to 12 years of age.