Want to help new students...

- Connect with SMU student leaders, staff and faculty
- Create their first SMU class schedule
- Learn about SMU resources, services, and how to get involved
- BECOME A PART OF THE SMU COMMUNITY!

As an Orientation Leader you will...

- Make key connections to SMU faculty, staff, and administration
- Serve as a mentor to new students
- Lead small group meetings and facilitate group activities
- Be a major resource and guide to new students and their families
- Develop strong leadership skills
- Make new friends and lasting memories
- Build your professional resume

Qualifications:

- Strong communication skills
- Good time-management and ability to be flexible
- Ability to work well independently, as well as with a diverse orientation staff and groups of new students and parents
- Enthusiasm for Saint Martin’s and the Lacey community.
- Strong desire to learn about resources, services, opportunities, policies and people at SMU.
- Enrolled full-time at Saint Martin’s at time of application and intend to be enrolled as a full-time student for Fall Semester 2015.
- Sophomore status as of Fall 2015, possess a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 and be in good judicial standing.

Work Schedule, Terms of Employment and Compensation:

Terms of employment

- Orientation Leaders are required to work both Advising and Registration AND Incipio
- Enroll in and complete the Benedictine leadership program
- Attendance at ALL training sessions (spring, summer and fall)
- Attendance at ALL 3 Advising and Registration sessions
- Attendance at ALL Incipio orientation training events from August 19-25
- Attendance at ALL Incipio orientation events from August 26-28

Compensation

- Orientation Leaders may, but are not required, live on-campus during Summer semester
- All meals and housing during orientation programs and training sessions.
- 2 orientation staff shirts (staff uniform)
- Stipend of $750 for the employment period