Saint Martin’s University
Welcome
From the President of Saint Martin’s University

Welcome to the Annual Career and Internship Fair. Saint Martin’s University is pleased to sponsor this year’s fair. We are very enthusiastic about the response we have received from employers to participate in this year’s event. We hope you find the fair beneficial to your career and your aspirations. I personally hope that you take advantage of all of the fair’s offerings from resume development to interview techniques to speaking with the many employers that will be present.

I want to thank the employers and sponsors that are participating this year. May you find the perfect match for your organizations from the participants at this fair!

FirstLight Home Care is seeking kind and caring individuals to provide non-medical in-home care to our clients in Thurston County (Olympia, Lacey, Tumwater, DuPont, Rainier, Rochester, Yelm and Tenino). Good caregiving takes much more than the technical skills needed to help someone transition in and out of a wheelchair or give a shower. We are looking for people who instinctively know when to hold a hand, rub a back, and offer an arm, and who will treat our clients like the wonderful people (not patients) that they are. We believe strongly that our caregivers should give clients joy and a purpose to their day in addition to supporting them with their daily activities.

This a great opportunity for nursing students to work around their school schedule and develop their client relation skills.

Car and car insurance required. CNA or HCA preferred.

South Puget Sound Habitat for Humanity is a local affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International. Working with donors and volunteers, SPS Habitat builds affordable housing communities in Thurston County. Founded in 1989, SPS Habitat serves the very-low income families whose dream is to own their own homes and self-determine their own futures.

Our biggest need for volunteers is currently at our Habitat Stores, where we sell new and gently used building supplies and furniture at discounted prices. Located in Yelm and in West Olympia, both stores rely on volunteers 7 days a week, from 9 am - 7 pm. Store volunteers are a vital part of our operation and we appreciate them greatly! As a volunteer, help keep the store clean and organized, greet and assist customers, repair and rehab furniture and much more! A successful volunteer will be friendly, organized, punctual, willing to learn and work with a diverse group of staff and other community volunteers.

Steilacoom School District
511 Chambers St.

Established in 1854, Steilacoom Historical School District No. 1 is the oldest organized school district in Pierce County. The District serves the communities of Steilacoom, DuPont, and Anderson Island, plus portions of Lakewood and unincorporated Pierce County.

The District is known for its student success in academics, the arts and athletics. Our schools offer a rigorous curriculum, with collaborative teachers who are committed to the "Best Education for Every Student". We are extremely proud of our working partnerships with Joint-Base Lewis McChord (JBLM) and the service we provide to our military-connected families.

Historically, the school communities have supported the District through the passage of bond issues for new facilities and local levies to enhance basic education. Just over 3,200 students are currently enrolled in the District's Pre-K through 12th grade programs at six facilities: a remote and necessary K-5 elementary school on Anderson Island and five mainland schools - Cherrydale Primary School (Pre K-3), Chloe Clark Elementary (Pre K-3), Saltar's Point Elementary (4-5), Pioneer Middle School (6-8), Steilacoom High School (9-12). The District employs approximately 325 certificated and classified staff members.
